

mx Nightlife

Melbourne is known worldwide for its fresh restaurants and hard-to-find, but oh-so cool bars. This summer, explore the city we call home.

Christmas in the City

Miss Libertine

34 Franklin St, Melbourne
www.misslibertine.com.au
9663 6855

Rock 'n' Rollers meet their sleek corporate friends at Miss Libertine. Situated in the City's recently discovered north among the growing landscape of hidden watering holes, Miss Libertine stands out – maybe not from the street, but definitely from within. Maybe it's to enjoy a cocktail, or a beer from the impressive selection in the pub like front bar, or maybe it's to rock on til the wee hours in the black neon band room. Either way it's a going to be a fun night out at Miss Libertine.

The Carlton Hotel

Fir 1/ 193 Bourke St Melbourne
9663 3216

Brought to you by the friendly people who brought the Windsor Castle to Prahan, the Carlton hotel is arguably one of the City's best new pubs. It's everything you would expect from the clever folk who sought to make pubs cool again – great fit-out, great food, a bit of glamour but no pretentiousness.

The Library Wine Bar

Shop S09, Level 2 GPO,
Cnr Bourke & Elizabeth sts,
Melbourne
9662 2902

Offering high quality wines and champagnes by the glass, the state-of-the-art temperature controlled cellar and refrigeration system carefully restores crispness to all bottles opened. Rich with wood and lush textures, The Library boasts a large oval bar overlooked by 4m shelving lined with historic books and artefacts. It's the perfect place to enjoy a great drop with good friends.

Saganaki

62 NewQuay Promenade,
Docklands
www.saganaki.com.au
9606 0008

The slow roast feast at this modern Greek restaurant is an ideal way to celebrate Christmas with friends.

Fish Seafood Grill and Restaurant

G09-G12, 439 Docklands Drive,
Waterfront City, Docklands
9640 0686
www.fishrestaurant.com.au

Be among the first to celebrate Christmas in true Aussie style with a seafood lunch or dinner at Fish. With floor-to-ceiling windows and an outdoor dining area with views of Melbourne's bustling waterways, Fish offers a unique dining experience.

■ For further information visit
www.thatsmelbome.com.au

Celebrate the festive season in the City with Melbourne's best new bars and restaurants, all within walking distance or just a tram stop away. Wander through the maze of urban laneways, or relax by the sea and enjoy the views at the Docklands. The city's new restaurants and sultry bars make it one of the best places for Christmas parties and celebrations.

Gingerboy

27-29 Crossley St, Melbourne
www.gingerboy.com.au
9662 4200

Gingerboy is restaurateur Teague Ezard's latest culinary venture. Inspired by Asian hawkers bars around the world, Gingerboy brings the heat of Asia into the heart of the City. Tucked away in Crossley St amid the graffiti and laneway grit, Gingerboy offers fabulous food and cocktails in Hong Kong-style glitz.

The Carlton Hotel

Fir 1/ 193 Bourke St Melbourne
9663 3216

Brought to you by the friendly people who brought the Windsor Castle to Prahan, the Carlton hotel is arguably one of the City's best new pubs. It's everything you would expect from the clever folk who sought to make pubs cool again – great fit-out, great food, a bit of glamour but no pretentiousness.

Saganaki

62 NewQuay Promenade,
Docklands
www.saganaki.com.au
9606 0008

The slow roast feast at this modern Greek restaurant is an ideal way to celebrate Christmas with friends.

Fish Seafood Grill and Restaurant

G09-G12, 439 Docklands Drive,
Waterfront City, Docklands
9640 0686
www.fishrestaurant.com.au

Be among the first to celebrate Christmas in true Aussie style with a seafood lunch or dinner at Fish. With floor-to-ceiling windows and an outdoor dining area with views of Melbourne's bustling waterways, Fish offers a unique dining experience.

■ For further information visit
www.thatsmelbome.com.au